

Job Title:

Forensic Toxicology Section Supervisor

Organization Name:

North Louisiana Criminalistics Laboratory

Responsibilities:

The North Louisiana Criminalistics Laboratory (NLCL) announces the opening of the position of, Forensic Toxicology Section Supervisor, for the newly completed North Louisiana Forensic Sciences Center in Shreveport, Louisiana, which will be adding the services of Forensic Toxicology and Forensic Pathology.

Responsibilities will include:

Developing protocols and procedures for the NLFSC Toxicology Section;

Purchasing and setting up instrumentation and equipment for new Forensic Toxicology Lab;

Training new staff in procedures and protocols

Supervision of Forensic Toxicology operation

There will be opportunities for adjunct positions with LSU Medical School in Shreveport, for teaching and research.

Qualifications:

A master's degree in natural science (e.g. biology, chemistry, toxicology, biochemistry) from an accredited institution; successful completion of general and organic chemistry with associated laboratory classes (minimum 16 hours); 16 hours of additional upper level chemistry, biochemistry or toxicology coursework; a course in statistics

Five years full time laboratory experience as a forensic toxicologist.

This position is open only to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Valid driver's license required. Applicants will be subjected to a background check of criminal history. An interview in Shreveport will be necessary before hiring. This opening will be filled as soon as possible.

Compensation:

Employees' benefits include participation in a retirement system and 100% health and dental insurance paid by the lab. The salary is competitive and negotiable.

How to apply

Please send by email (jdbarnhill@comcast.net and cc abrauer@nlcl.org) or regular mail a curriculum vitae and transcripts (unofficial copies are acceptable). Applications without transcripts will not be considered.

Jimmy Barnhill, NLCL System Director

jdbarnhill@comcast.net

1115 Brooks Street

Shreveport, LA 71101

Phone: 318-227-2889

FAX: 318-227-9013